

extinction rebellion

Saturday 17th. November.

We are in an ecological crisis caused by climate change, pollution and habitat destruction; a mass species extinction on a scale much larger than the one which killed the dinosaurs is underway.

Our course is set to societal collapse, the killing of millions, likely billions of people - human extinction is possible.

The future is bleak and our children are not safe.

Come with us to protest in Parliament Square.

Coaches from Brighton
<http://www.hasl.org.uk> for more information

Hanover Action